

NEW ZEALAND

Net happiness score (%)

	Warwick-Edinburgh mental wellbeing score	47.57		Physical well-being	13%
	Emotional well-being	28%		Relationship well-being	65%
	Country good or bad place to live	81%		World becoming better or worse place	-24%
	Largest cause of hope for future	86%		Largest cause of fear for future	81%
	More people being educated around the world			Conflict and war

Key stats

- Young people in New Zealand are very positive about living in their country. 83% think that is a good place in which to live - among the highest scores for this question on the survey.
- However, overall happiness is among the lowest of all countries studied, at 50% (compared to a global average of 59%) with similarly low levels of overall wellbeing (47.57 compared to an average of 50.28).
- 86% of young people in New Zealand said that that education was the factor that made them hopeful for the future.