Varkey Foundation has carried out the most comprehensive global study of the hopes, fears and aspirations of over 27,000 parents across 29 countries.

Read it now

#VFParentsSurvey
Parents’ confidence in the quality of teaching at their children’s schools is high globally. Rating good or very good. 78%
Parents were asked about the quality of free to attend schools in their country in general, they were far less confident.

Parents rating them as good: 45%
Little relationship has been found between how good parents think their child’s teaching is, and how good the education outcomes in their own country, as measured by the PISA international educational rankings.

Parents least confident in the quality of their child’s teaching.

- South Korea: 45%
- Japan: 60%
If there were additional funds for their child’s school, most parents would like them to be spent on teachers.

Half of parents listed either more teachers or better pay for existing teachers.

34% chose buildings & other facilities.

46% chose computers/technology.

#VFParentsSurvey
Almost 64% of parents believe their child’s school is preparing them well for the world of 2030 and beyond.

India 88%
Indonesia 86%
South Korea 37%
Japan 48%
Kenya 71%
France 47%

#VFParentsSurvey
Parents’ biggest concerns about their children’s futures globally remain bread and butter issues.

Getting a job and having a successful career: 42%

- Cost of living: 34%
- Global threats: 16%
- Climate change: 14%

#VFParentsSurvey
Global Parents’ Survey 2018

Parents in lower income and emerging economies spend much more of their own time helping with their children’s education out of school.

25% of parents worldwide spend 7 or more hours a week helping their children with their education.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Country</th>
<th>Percentage</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>India</td>
<td>62%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Vietnam</td>
<td>50%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Colombia</td>
<td>39%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Established economies are spending less time: 5% Finland, 10% France & Japan, 11% UK.

#VFParentsSurvey